"DANCING DAISIES"

Century Two-Reel Comedy

Starring AL ALT

PEN is with Al Alt, dancing instructor, coming in on a train with a bunch of showgirls and the backer of the show, Maryland. The conductor comes around for the tickets and when they can't show the tickets he throws them off. They go to the beach and Alt is teaching them some new steps. Alt sees a very pretty girl sitting on the bench, so he starts performing before her. Another fellow comes along and wants to make a hit with the girl, so he starts performing to outdo Alt. They soon find that they have been performing in vain, as the girl is blind.

The hotel on the beach has not been doing very much business—the owner sees the girls and decides to put them in to run the hotel and in that way draws the crowds. When the hotel owner has enough money he tries to get Alt and the girls get him. When the train again and meet the conductor who threw them off and when he sees them he is ready to throw them off again, but they jump on him and take some tickets from him.
